

I would like to keep the DO NO CALL LIST. There have been plenty of times that telemarketers call at in-oportune times and they will not take no for a answer. With the list in place it has alleviated some of the stress.